(Complete List follows)

Rabbit Cake* by Annie Hartnett

“Fans of Maria Semple's Where'd You Go Bernadette and Kevin Wilson's The Family Fang will delight in Annie Hartnett's debut, a darkly comic novel about a young girl named Elvis trying to figure out her place in a world without her mother.”

“Books about grief are rarely funny and adorable—this one is...Dry, twisted and delicious.”

The Thirst* by Jo Nesbo

“In this electrifying new thriller from the author of Police and The Snowman, Inspector Harry Hole hunts down a serial murderer who targets his victims . . . on Tinder.”

“Harry Hole, Norway’s most experienced serial murder detective, is content to no longer serve on the murder squad, instead lecturing at the police college and living happily after marrying Rakel three years ago. Unfortunately, such bliss is interrupted when evidence of a possible murder too difficult to solve leads the police chief to blackmail Harry into joining the hunt. And then he jumps in with both feet.”

Into the Water* by Paula Hawkins

“An addictive new novel of psychological suspense from author of New York Times bestseller and global phenomenon Girl on the Train.”

“A single mother turns up dead at the bottom of the river that runs through town. Earlier in the summer, a vulnerable teenage girl met the same fate. They are not the first women lost to these dark waters, but their deaths disturb the river and its history, dredging up secrets long submerged.”

The River at Night* by Erica Ferencik

“A high-stakes drama set against the harsh beauty of the Maine wilderness, charting the journey of four friends as they fight to survive the aftermath of a white water rafting accident, The River at Night is a nonstop and unforgettable thriller by a stunning new voice in fiction.”
