November 5th, 2019: Personal Development

Color Coding with Paint - Highlight an area and give a highlight color. Click the Paint Roller tool and highlight another area or click on a word to highlight again.

Color code using varies color: Yellow for spelling, blue for punctuation.

Automatic Substitution -
Create a bank of short words to represent a whole comment.
Use Suggestion Mode while working!
To set up, open a Google Doc, Click Tools, Click Preferences, Type in Abbreviation followed by Explanation.

List of Examples to Use gd =Good answer - I like your thinking here.
howshow = how does it show this? be specific!
punc = punctuation is a requirement to a complete senten cap = capitalization is required for a complete sentence.
directions = you didn't follow the directions here.
mc = missing citation
comp = This isn't a complete sentence.

Comment Bank
Create a Bank of Comments to use while working with students on Google Classroom Documents.
To setup Comment Bank: Click the Comment Bank Icon while once you are on a student's document.
Click to Add to Bank - Type your words for the bank.

To Use: Highlight an area on the document, click the Comment Icon

In the Comment Bank, hover on the comment you want to use, Click the 3 vertical dots and select "Copy to Clipboard"

Click in the Comment box and Paste.

Originality Checker - Beta Version: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfIQoXEBjFx9WMglISWJMY8FS0Ml41kFTmDrfvBs9eqF4kxnQ/viewform