

Kids' Bill of Rights – Mr. DeCamilla's Class

These rights are your rights, these rights are my rights
if we work together the future's so bright kids need their fun and need their freedom listen to our new Kids' Bill of Rights

Woke up this morning, I felt like stone
I was so tired, can I stay home?
Would you believe it? My mom said "go to school."
I need a sleepy Kids' Bill of Rights

I've got a brother, he just turned fourteen
It isn't fair: he can do everything
When I get older I'll be much happier Give me the Big Kids' Bill of Rights

Up in the classroom we learn to read It's so important, it's what we need We write our stories and learn division
That's in the school Kids' Bill of Rights

Out on the playground we're free to play with friends of all kinds, it's all okay
We might be different but we can still be friends Put that in the cool Kids' Bill of Rights

Went out to Smitty's to see a movie
I wanted to popcorn, candy and smoothies
I made a big scene but I didn't get anything I need the hungry Kids' Bill of Rights

These rights are your rights, these rights are my rights
if we work together the future's so bright
kids need their fun and need their freedom
This has been the new Kids' Bill of Rights (Hooray!)
