

Mrs. Libby's Class – "Brunswick"

Off the blue coast of Brunswick, there's a bid store called Cooks
There's so many lobsters and too many hooks
If you want to go bowling there's old Yankee Lanes
You can go to the airshow for the Blue Angels planes
You can pull into Fat Boys for a burger and frappe
Off to Wild Oats on Maine Street for a muffin and wrap
At old Libby's Market are the best lobster rolls
Take your children to Glazed, they can pint their own bols
At Gelato Fiasco there's so many flavors
Then go the to Big Top because they're great neighbors
You can stop off at Frosty's for donuts and coffee
And then off to Wilbur's for chocolate and toffee
Grab a hotdog at Danny's and disc at Bull Moose
And hop the Downeaster and ride the caboose
At the Curtis Memorial there are so many books
They've got movies and CDs and studying nooks.
I'm sure that you've noticed, when it's all said and done,
How much we love Brunswick, it's a bundle of fun!
