

Make a Face Inspired from Natural Objects

It can be fun to make people's faces or even animals without using paper, pencils or paint.

You could use things you found outside or inside. If you want to try and make something out of food, you can even use just pictures of food. You can find pictures in newspapers, magazines and even the grocery store advertisements.

Here are some examples to use as ideas for your own project.

