

Transparent, Translucent, and Opaque Descriptions

Transparent objects allow all of the light to pass through them. That means we can clearly see through them.

Translucent objects only allow some light to pass through them. We can partially see through them, but not completely.

Opaque objects do not allow any light to pass through them. This means that we cannot see through them at all.