

5th Grade Reading Response Options

Read for at least 30 minutes and choose a response

Vocabulary In your fiction or nonfiction reading, pick at least 6 words that you are unfamiliar with . On a piece of paper (or in your reading journal - IF you have one) find the definition of the word online or in a dictionary and write down what it means. Then write down what it means in relation to the book you are reading.  The word....means.....  In my reading it means...	Favorite or Least Favorite Part What was your favorite or least favorite part of the story? Why? My favorite part/ least favorite part in the story was....because...	Supporting Characters In your fictional reading, who are the characters that support the main character as they grow in the story? The supporting characters in the story are.... _____ is a character who helps the main character in the by _____. *Do this for each supporting character.
Problem and Solution What is the problem in the story and how was it solved? The main problem in the story is... and it was solved by... (use supporting details from the text)	write a Postcard Pick a character in a story to write a postcard to. Tell the character what you have been up to since school at home started or make it up! Dear...	Book Review Write a book review for a book you have read. What is it about?  Who are the main characters?  What is the Problem(s) in the story and how are they solved?  Would you recommend the book to others? Why or why not?.  Please use details from the story to support your answers.
Compare and Contrast Compare a character to another character in your book. How are they alike?          How are they different?          Do they help one another or	Prequel Write a beginning to the story that happens BEFORE the story starts. Think Star Wars and how they flashback to stories that happened before the current story.	Poetry Pick a poem online, in a book or one that you have written. Then;  Write the poem down and then write about it.  Is it fiction or nonfiction? How do

are they enemies? The two characters in my book are.... The first character is ... He/She is.... The other character is... He/she is.. They help one another by... (use details from the story) Or They are enemies because... (use details from the story)	Who are the main characters? What is the setting of the story (where does it take place)? What is the problem that will lead you to the book you are reading or have already read?	you know? Why did you pick this particular poem? Illustrate (draw) the poem.
Text to Self Connection Does this story remind you of something that has happened in your life or to someone you know why: This reminds me of...	Main Idea and Details What is the main idea of the text? What are 3 supporting details? The main idea of the text is...3 ideas that support the main idea are...	Lesson Learned What lesson does the main character learn at the end of the story? Why is this lesson important? Could the lesson be learned by the reader? The lesson is... It could/could not be learned by the reader because....
Another Version Using a favorite folk or fairy tale that you are familiar with (look it up online if you need help remembering it) and write a different version of the story. How is it different from the version you know? Who are the characters? What is the problem and is it solved at the end of the story? You can illustrate your version if you would like.	Text Features Name a text feature that you used when reading to learn about something. (for example: glossary, diagram, table of contents, chart, etc.) Write another text feature to add to the book. *It could be a heading with accompanying text, it could be an illustration, diagram, chart or an addition to the Table of Contents or Glossary. I made a ...for the text as a text feature. This helps the reader learn...	Word Search Take a blank piece of paper or lined notebook paper and use a ruler (or anything with a straight edge) to create a word search using words from the text you are reading. You can make them across, down, diagonal or even backwards! Don't forget to write the words down that you are using. Challenge someone at home to complete your word search when it is done :)