RE: "From the Top"
Date: 1/16/12

On Wednesday, February 29, NPR's "From the Top With Host Christopher O'Riley" will be taping a show for future broadcast from Kanbar Auditorium, Studzinski Recital Hall at Bowdoin.

"From the Top", the preeminent showcase for young musicians. is considered one of the most popular weekly classical music programs on public radio. We have been offered a wonderful opportunity for some of our students to attend the show's dress rehearsal from 2:30 until 4:00 on 2/29. This will be free of charge but we will have a limited number of seats available to us.

Students interested in attending the dress rehearsal on 2/29 should return the permission slip below as soon as possible. I will take students on a "first come/first serve" basis up to the number of seats we are allotted with a waiting list for those who don't get a seat. I should know how many seats we'll have within the next couple of days.

On Thursday, March 1, members of the production team/performers will be visiting BJH from 1:00 to 3:00 for a more intimate, informal presentation. This presentation will be open to all wind ensemble students.

FYI: Tickets for the "real" show (7:30 PM, February 29) will be available beginning February 1: $15 public/ $5 Association of Bowdoin Friends Members/ Free Bowdoin Students, Faculty, and Staff.
