Writing Haiku

Haiku is a traditional form of Japanese poetry.

| Haiku poems consist of 3 short lines.                 |   |   |               |  |
|---|---|---|---------------|--|
| The first and last lines of a Haiku have 5 syllables. |   | The first and middle line should be different images. |               |  |
| The middle line has 7 syllables.                      |   | The last line ties the first two lines together and   |               |  |
| Leave out all unnecessary words.                      |   | makes the first two lines make sense.                 |               |  |
| No metaphors.   |   |   |               |  |
| The lines rarely rhyme.                               |   |   |               |  |
| Do NOT start a sentence with "The."                   |   |   |               |  |
|   |   |   |               |  |
| An Example of Haiku:                                  | An Example of Haiku: Looking for the moon.  In a lonely autumn sky. |   |               |  |
|   |   |   |               |  |
| Mountain castle lights.                               |   |   |               |  |
