

The Road to Revolution

part 2

Sons of Liberty

secret groups in each of the colonies formed to _____ the British often used _____

Committees of Correspondence

_____ -writing groups in each of the colonies letters told other colonies what the _____ were doing in their colony

Boston Tea Party

December 16, 1773

the British government gave the East India Company a _____ on all tea sold to the colonies (they were the only ones who sold them tea - no _____!)

price increase + tax (Townsend Acts) = _____ colonists

Boston Tea Party

_____ Adams and other Sons of Liberty dressed up like _____ boarded British ships in Boston Harbor dumped all the _____ into the water

Coercive / Intolerable Acts

1774

_____:
try to get someone to do something

_____:
something is so bad you can't stand (tolerate) it to punish the colonists for the Boston Tea Party, Parliament (the British government) did the following:

_____ the port of Boston until the tea was paid for _____ most town meetings required Bostonians to continue to _____ British troops in their private homes

First Continental Congress

September of 1774

55 delegates met in _____ wrote the _____ and Resolves listed why the colonies were mad created the The _____

a group that organized

_____ of British goods

John Adams

Samuel Adams

George Washington

Carpenter's Hall,
Philadelphia

Quebec Act

1774

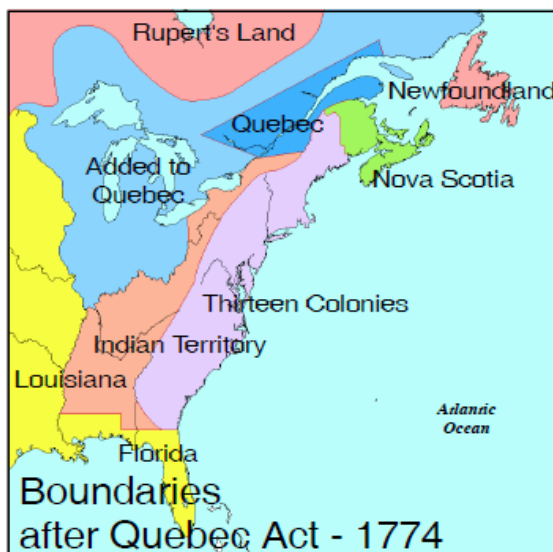

British Act that did the following:

extended the border of Quebec south to the _____ River allowed French Canadians to use the _____ system they were used to (didn't make them change to the British system)

allowed them freedom of _____ (they were _____) colonists feared (wrongly) that they would be made to use the same law and religion as in Quebec

Lexington and Concord

April 19, 1775

Massachusetts colonists were collecting _____ in Concord

British General Thomas Gage sent Redcoats to take the weapons away from the colonists

Redcoats met Minutemen in _____ a Minuteman (mistakenly) fired a shot

British troops returned fire

British killed _____ and wounded 10

Ralph Waldo Emerson wrote that it was "the _____ heard 'round the world"

Lexington and Concord

Battle of Bunker / "Breed's" Hill

June, 1775

Bunker and Breed's Hills are both just outside Boston colonial troops marched up _____ Hill were surrounded by British held their ground until they ran out of _____ lost the hill but killed many British soldiers

Colonists
(Minutemen)
115 killed
305 wounded
30 captured
Total: _____

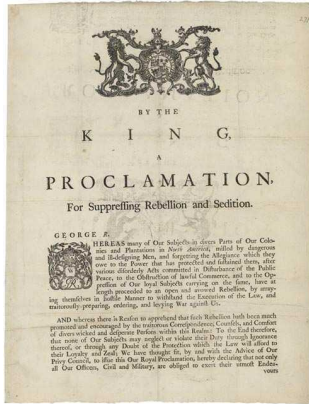

British
(Redcoats)
226 killed
828 wounded
0 captured
Total: _____

Second Continental Congress

May of 1775 – July 1781

created:

The Declaration of the Causes and Necessity of Taking Up _____

also July, 1775

explained why the colonies had started fighting while insisting that they _____ want independence

Olive Branch Petition

July, 1775

asked King George III

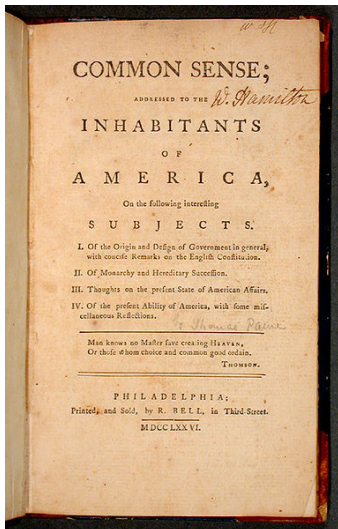

to _____ the fighting

until an _____ could be worked out the king ignored it

Common Sense

by Thomas Paine

Thomas Paine statue in his home town of Thetford, Norfolk (England)

pamphlet written in January, 1776

listed _____ from Britain written with wording that everyone could _____ had the largest sale and circulation of any book published in American history at that point