

The New Deal

other programs
the

School lunch project paid for with FERA funds, Fresno City, CA 1940 gave money to state and local agencies to fund their relief projects

Cheyenne women with stack of mattresses they made, paid for with FERA funds, 1940

the _____

construction workers built public highways, dams, schools, and other government facilities the PWA insisted that contractors not discriminate against African Americans, breaking down some of the racial barriers in the construction trades

the

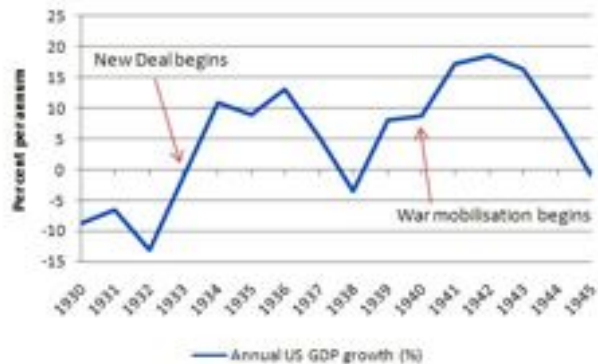

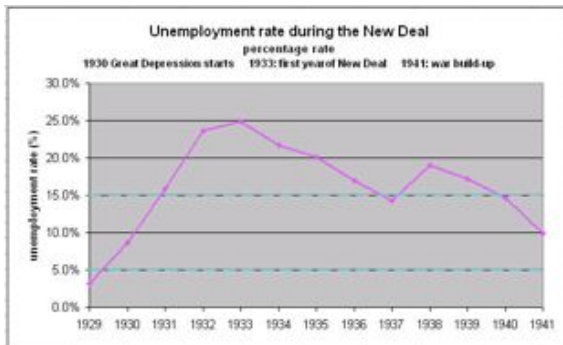

built or improved airports, roads, schools, playgrounds, and parks

The New Deal

effects

the New Deal _____, but it reflected Roosevelt's willingness to try banks were reopened, many retained their homes and farms, and more people were employed the most important result of the New Deal _____

Roosevelt's actions had inspired hope and restored Americans' faith in their nation