

Frontline is the nation's leading automated substitute placement and absence management system. Brunswick School Department uses Frontline to manage absences and substitute coverage where needed. With Frontline, teachers can register their absences at any time, either by calling a toll-free number or by logging in via the web with their personalized Username and Pin. Substitutes can search for available assignments anytime, either by calling a toll-free number or by logging on via the web with their individual Username and Pin.

To log in to your Frontline account, whether you're an employee or substitute, click the link below:
